Availa Bank Announces New Hire in Webster City Danielle Moore to join Mortgage team as Mortgage Loan Officer

Webster City, Iowa (May 4, 2021) – Availa Bank is pleased to announce the hiring of Danielle Moore as a Mortgage Loan Officer for the Webster City branch.

Danielle brings over 22 years of experience to Availa Bank. She has worked in various positions such as Teller, Savings Specialist, Consumer & Mortgage Loan Officer, Assistant Vice President/Consumer Loan Officer, and as a Mortgage Loan Officer.

As the new Mortgage Loan Officer at Availa Bank in Webster City, Danielle will be responsible for working with customers to provide the right financing for their new home, as well as maintaining relationships with customers, realtors, developers, and builders to provide the best mortgage options.

Born and raised in Webster City her whole life, Danielle is invested in her community as a member of St. Thomas Aquinas Church and as a member of the Heart of Iowa Regional Housing Trust Fund. In her spare time, Danielle enjoys spending time with family and friends, kayaking, camping, and riding motorcycles.

Jeff Kluver, Vice President Mortgage Loan Officer at the Webster City branch, is excited for Danielle to join the team. “Danielle brings with her valuable mortgage lending experience. She believes in community banks and believes in our community. We are so happy to have her join our Availa banking family,” he says.

Scott Bargfrede, Webster City Market President and Senior Loan Officer, agreed with Jeff, “I’m excited to have Danielle join our Availa bank team. The knowledge and experience Danielle brings will be an asset to our team.”
